

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

Charles Campbell Park built the house at 668 Hastings in 1899.

City of Vancouver Archives Photo CVA 480-74 showing Constable Charles C. Park c. 1899 in Stanley Park

The year that Charles C. Park bought Lots 14, 15 and 16 of Block 68 of District Lot 196, he lived at 721 Westminster Avenue (now the west side of the 700-block of Main Street) and was listed in the city directories as a carpenter. Park left Vancouver directories from 1890 to 1892 but returned in 1893, moving to 659 Harris (now East Georgia) Street working as a commission agent. By 1894, he and his family had moved to 326 Princess (now East Pender) Street but was still listed as a commission agent. By 1895, Charles Park and his family were living at 232 Keefer Street where they stayed until 1899-1900. The 1895 directory lists C. C. Park as a dealer in patents. From 1896 onward, though, he is listed as a police constable and in 1899 specifically as a police patrolman. According to the 1901 census, Charles C. Park was born in rural Ontario on May 25, 1858.

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

Hugh Orr lived at 668 Hastings (now the house at 417 Heatley) from 1890 to 1891.

City of Vancouver Photo Port P1130 (circa 1906) Foundry worker “Hughie” Orr is shown standing on the left.

Hugh Orr was one of the original occupants of the 1889-built house at 668 (originally 634) East Hastings (now 417 Heatley Street). According to the 1901 census, Hugh Orr was born in Scotland on January 11, 1868 the son of James Orr and Jane C. Brown and came to Canada in 1887. In 1901, he lived with his mother, Jane C. Orr (b. Scotland 16 November, 1834) and sister Agnes Orr (b. Scotland 2 November, 1874). According to the census, Jane and Agnes followed Hugh to Canada two years after in 1889. The census also tells us that Hugh made $800 a year working as a foundry man. Hugh Orr, a moulder for the Vancouver Foundry in 1890, went on to become a foundry owner in his own right.

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

Henry Thomas Lockyer

lived at 668 Hastings (now the house at 417 Heatley) in 1892.

City of Vancouver Archives Photo Bu P685 (Old photo: Bu N576) This is a group portrait of original construction gang of the B.C. Sugar Refining Co. taken sometime between 1890 and 1891. H. T. Lockyer, then bookkeeper for Vancouver Sugar is shown at left.

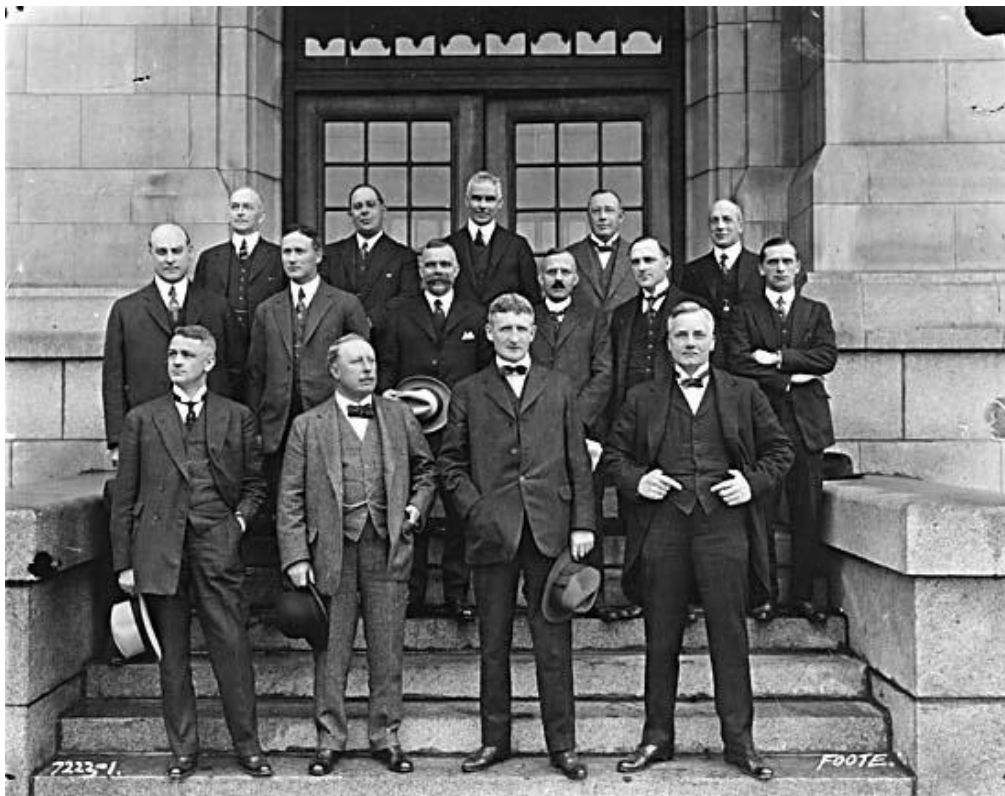

Henry Thomas Lockyer was born in Greenhithe, Kent, England on December 8, 1868 the son of Richard and Mary Ann Lockyer. He came to Canada in 1890. His wife, Florence Town, was born in Maidstone, Kent, England on December 16, 1874 daughter of William Henry and Elizabeth Town. She came to Canada in 1892. Both were members of the Church of England. They were married at St. James' Church on June 19, 1892 by the Rev. P. Yolland. By the time of the 1901 census, Henry worked for the Hudson's Bay Co. and made $2500 a year. Henry went on to become a store manager for the Hudson's Bay Company, then eventually the Hudson's Bay Company manager for all of British Columbia. He retired in 1925. In later life he lived at 1436 Burnaby Street. He died there on March 26, 1941 at the age of 72 and was buried in Ocean View.

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

Here is a close up of H. T. Lockyer. There are several photos of Henry T. Lockyer in the City of Vancouver Archives. In many he is shown accompanying Lord Strathcona and Sir MacKenzie Bowell (Canada's fifth Prime Minister from December 21, 1894 to April 27, 1896) during their 1909 visit to Vancouver. These follow in chronological order.

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

City of Vancouver Archives Photo Port P1202. The photo's caption is "Group Photo of H. T. Lockyer and others." Lockyer is standing second from the left in the front row.

This photo was most likely taken when Lockyer was President of the Vancouver Board of Trade in 1903.

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

City of Vancouver Archives Photo SGN 1074.5 This photo shows people assembled on the porch of wholesale grocer James Stark's summer cottage at English Bay, circa 1898. H.T. Lockyer is in the boater hat on left.

Henry T. Lockyer lived for many years on Robson Street in a house right beside James Stark. In 1898, the shore of English Bay east of Stanley Park was the location of many seaside summer cottages.

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

City of Vancouver Archives Photo Port P1203.2 showing H.T. Lockyer and others in front of the Hollow Tree in Stanley Park, circa 1909

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

City of Vancouver Archives Photo Port P1203.1 This shows H.T. Lockyer and others in front of the Hollow Tree at Stanley Park, circa 1909. Lockyer is seated beside the driver. Note that the steering wheel is on the right.

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

City of Vancouver Archives Photo LP 32 (Old photo No. Tr P40N28) This image shows Lord Strathcona and Sir MacKenzie Bowell, Canada's fourth prime minister, with a group of Vancouver dignitaries which includes Henry T. Lockyer in front of the Hollow Tree on, Aug. 31, 1909.

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

City of Vancouver Archives Photo Bu P239 shows a group assembled in front of VGH for visit of Lord Strathcona and Sir Mackenzie Bowell.

Both Henry T. Lockyer and his wife Florence are listed as being among the group. Florence Lockyer is the third person from the left in the front row. H. T. Lockyer stands second from the left in the second row.

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings
& Other Resources

The Province - March 27, 1941, p. 9

H. T. LOCKYER,
Hudson's Bay Pioneer.

Business Pioneer

DEATH CLAIMS
H. T. LOCKYER

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

Henry T. Lockyer, 73, of 1436 Burnaby street, a pioneer business man of Vancouver and former general manager of Hudson's Bay Company British Columbia stores, died at his home Wednesday night.

The late Mr. Lockyer took a great interest in civic affairs and in athletics as well as business life. He was president of the Vancouver Board of Trade in 1903 and president of the Vancouver Exhibition Association from 1920 to 1922. Mr. Lockyer was for many years a leading figure with the Associated Property Owners of Vancouver. He was president from 1929 to 1936.

A native of Greenhithe, England, he came to Vancouver in 1891 as a young man of 23, entering the service of the British Columbia Sugar Refinery as an accountant. He left this organization two years later to take up his work with the Hudson's Bay Company, with whom he was associated until he retired in 1925.

B. C. MANAGER.

Advanced through various positions to become manager of the Vancouver store in 1896, holding that position until 1923 when he became general manager of all B. C. stores. Mr. Lockyer saw the growth of the company in Vancouver from the time its retail business was centred in part of an old brick building at the corner of Granville and Georgia, until extensive alterations were made.

Sir Augustus Nanton, company director and Canadian chairman, paid this tribute to Mr. Lockyer: "Mr. Lockyer is one of the oldest and most successful storemen the Hudson's Bay Company has had in Canada. It is for this reason we have decided to give him this position of larger responsibility."

RECEIVED PRESENTATION.

When Mr. Lockyer retired in 1925, he was made the recipient of an illuminated address and a set of silverware from the staff. Following his retirement Mr. Lockyer travelled extensively, and on his return renewed his interest in civic life and affairs.

A keen sportsman, he was prominent in golf and cricket circles. As honorary president of the Wednesday Cricket League and president of the Burrard Cricket League he was a familiar figure on the Brockton Point playing field.

He was a charter member of the Terminal-City Club and a member of the Shaughnessy Golf Club and the Jericho Golf and Country Club. He was affiliated with the Sons of England, Western Jubilee Lodge; Cascade Lodge A. F. & A. M., and St. Paul's Anglican Church.

Surviving are three sons, Norman of Bakersfield, Cal., Leonard and Gilbert in Vancouver; four grandchildren, Douglas and Ronald in Bakersfield, Marjorie in Vancouver, and Joan in Los Angeles; one sister, Mrs. William Pay, Hove, Sussex.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 1:30 p.m. in St. Paul's Anglican Church, corner of Pender and Jervis. Coffin by Hanna.

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

Vancouver News Herald - March 27, 1941, p. 2

Henry Lockyer Passes In City

Henry Thomas Lockyer, a pioneer Vancouver business man who until 1925 was British Columbia manager for the Hudson's Bay Company, passed away late Wednesday at his home, 1436 Burnaby Street.

Mr. Lockyer was 74 years of age. He was born in Greenhithe, England.

Until stricken by an illness which removed him from an active public life as a business man and sportsman, Mr. Lockyer was associated with the Vancouver Board of Trade, the Exhibition Association and numerous civic bodies.

Mr. Lockyer came to Vancouver in 1891 and as a young man of 23 was employed as an accountant with the British Columbia Sugar Refinery. He left this organization for the Hudson's Bay Company with which he remained until his retirement in 1925 as general manager for British Columbia.

Headed Trade Board

He was president of the Vancouver Board of Trade in 1903 and later his interest in civic welfare led him to the presidency of the Vancouver Exhibition Association.

In 1902 he was president of the British Columbia Wholesalers Exchange, and in later years was president of the Property Owners' Association. He gave up this office in 1929.

A keen sportsman and until ill health incapacitated him, Mr. Lockyer was prominent in golf and cricket circles. As honorary president of the Wednesday Cricket League and president of the Burrard Cricket league he was a familiar figure on the Brockton Point playing field.

Prominent Clubman

He was a charter member of the Terminal City Club and a member of the Shaughnessy Golf Club and Jericho Golf Club. In recent years his membership in these clubs had lapsed.

He was a member of the Sons of England, Western Jubilee Lodge; Cascade Lodge, A.F. & A.M., and attended St. Paul's Anglican Church.

Surviving are three sons, Norman, in Bakersfield, Calif.; Leonard and Gilbert in Vancouver; four grandchildren, Douglas and Ronald in Bakersfield, Marjorie in Vancouver and Joan in Los Angeles; one sister, Mrs. William Pay in Hove, Sussex, Eng.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by Center & Hanna, directors.

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

Vancouver Sun, March 27, 1941, p. 2

H. T. Lockyer, Retired Store Manager, Dies

One of Vancouver's pioneer business men, Henry Thomas Lockyer, 74, former general manager of the Hudson's Bay Company for British Columbia, who retired in 1925, died Wednesday at his home, 1436 Burnaby Street.

Mr. Lockyer came to Vancouver 50 years ago as a young man of 24, and during an active and successful public life was associated with many leading civic organizations, including the Vancouver Board of Trade and the Exhibition Association.

He was president of the British Columbia Wholesalers Exchange in 1902, and a year later became president of the Board of Trade. He later became president of the Exhibition Association and in 1929 retired as president of the Property Owners' Association.

Mr. Lockyer was first employed in Vancouver as an accountant with the British Columbia Sugar Refinery.

He served 33 years with the Hudson's Bay Company. He joined the company in Vancouver in 1892 as accountant, and in 1896 succeeded James Thomson as manager of the Vancouver store. In 1912 he became general manager of the store, and in 1921 he was appointed general manager for Hudson's Bay Company stores in British Columbia.

Mr. Lockyer was prominent in golf and cricket circles until ill-health forced him to retire. He was honorary president of the Wednesday Cricket League and president of the Burrard Cricket League. He was also a member of Shaughnessy and Jericho golf clubs.

He was a member of the Sons of England, Western Jubilee Lodge, and Cascade Lodge, A. F. and A. M. He attended St. Paul's Anglican Church.

Mr. Lockyer leaves three sons, Norman, in Bakersfield, Calif.; Leonard and Gilbert, Vancouver; four grandchildren, Douglas and Ronald, in Bakersfield; Marjorie, in Vancouver; Joan, in Los Angeles; one sister, Mrs. William Pay, in Hove, Sussex, England.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Center & Hanna.

Funeral services will be conducted in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Jervis and Pendrell Streets, at 1:30 p.m. Saturday by Rev. Canon H. G. King; burial, Ocean View Burial Park. Center & Hanna.

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

Victoria Colonist, March 27, 1941, p. 3

DEATH CLAIMS HENRY LOCKYER

Former General Manager of Hudson's Bay Company
Stores in B.C. Passes

VANCOUVER, March 26 (CP).—
Henry T. Lockyer, seventy-two, former general manager of the Hudson's Bay Company's British Columbia stores, died at his home here tonight following a lengthy illness.

Mr. Lockyer was born in Greenhithe, England, and came to British Columbia in 1891. Two years later he was appointed accountant of the Hudson's Bay Company's old Cordova Street store here and in 1896 was made manager of a new store built by the company at the corner of Granville and Georgia Streets, site of the present establishment. He was appointed general manager for British Columbia stores in 1923 and retired from the company two years later.

Mr. Lockyer was president of the Associated Property Owners of Vancouver from 1929 to 1936, president of the Vancouver Board of Trade in 1903 and president of the Vancouver Exhibition Association from 1920 to 1922.

He leaves three sons, D. Gilbert Lockyer and A. Leonard Lockyer, of Vancouver, and Norman, of Bakersfield, Cal.

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

Thomas A. McGarrigle lived at 676 East Hastings (now the house at 407 Heatley) from 1900 to 1902.

City of Vancouver Archives Photo Sch P140 (Old photo Sch N115) showing the entrance class outside Dawson School on Burrard Street at Nelson Street, in 1895. Thomas A. McGarrigle stands at right.

Archival Images, Newspaper Clippings & Other Resources

Province - October 18, 1932, p. 2

CITY PIONEER LAID AT REST

Thomas - A. McGarrigle
Was One of Early
Teachers.

HERE 43 YEARS

The passing of a pioneer Vancouver school teacher was marked this morning when funeral services for Thomas A. McGarrigle were held at 9 a.m. in Holy Rosary Cathedral, Dunsmuir and Richards streets.

Requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father M. Sweeney, and the remains were interred in the family plot, Ocean View Burial Park. T. J. Kearney Company was in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were Messrs. Hugh Campbell, Patrick Leaky, Peter Sheehan, Phil Bradfield, J. F. Foran and W. B. McDonald.

The deceased, who died Sunday in St. Paul's Hospital following a lingering illness, was educated at King's College, Halifax. He came to Vancouver forty-three years ago and was one of the first to teach at the old West School, now the Dawson School, which was then situated at Barclay and Burrard streets.

In 1889 he was appointed vice-principal of the school, and four years later he assumed the position of principal, in which capacity he served until 1898. From then until his retirement he taught in the interior.